

3rd Grade Summer Reading and Book Report

Dear Parents and Future 3rd Graders!

I am so excited to meet everyone. Third grade is exciting and filled with many new adventures. Over the summer, I would like you to read and have fun while reading. Reading throughout the summer will help you get ready for third grade. I would like you to read at least 2 of the books I have listed on the summer reading list and write a quick book report on only 1 of the books. The book report outline is attached. There are many books that are wonderful to read, so I do not want to limit what you can read to the list I have provided. I know that the summer is filled with vacations and beach days, so please try your best to bring a book with you to help you pass the time! I have also attached a summer reading challenge that will count towards extra credit at the beginning of the year. I thought the reading challenge was an excellent way to help you keep up with your reading. Here is a list of suggested books:

- Mr. Popper's Penguins by Atwater, Richard Tupper
- Henry Huggins or The Ramona Quimby series by Beverly Cleary
- Charlie and the Chocolate Factory by Dahl, Ronald
- The Courage of Sarah Noble by Alice Dalgliesh
